when the present session of con-sress convened, Representative An-derson wasted no time in framing a bill along the lines of the Sulloway measure that went through the house measure that went through the house last session. It provides for a graded increase, of the pensions of those now upon the rolls, and, in addition, adds quite a few old soldiers to the eligible class. Conservative estimates are that the bill, if enacted into law, will mean an increased appropriation for pensions of $45, 009,000 the first year. A sum almost as large must be appropriated for the first few years after its passage. As the old soldiers die, the ad-rocates of the bill say that the pen-sion toll will be decreased accord-add $45,000,000 to the pension rolls is a problem that daily confronts the economical democratis of the house. The bill now occupies such a place upon the calendar that only the most careful strategy will prevent its consideration.

The $45,600,000 pension bill is a sort of a holdover from last session, and it caused so much trouble then that President Taft indicated that he might yete of unless the amount holding that only unreasonable or un

May Se Side-Stepped.

The bill formerly was faragred to a republican. Now its author is a democrat, which makes it doubly hard for the democrats to refuse action upon it. Nevertheless, it has been side-slepped twice this session, and, if the plans of the leaders so through, it will be side-stepped again whenever it bobs up in bothersome fashion.

Representative Carl Anderson, of Onio, is the democrat who has not continuous effects of the country and provided and harassing litigation, the injurious effects of Onio, is the democrat who has not continuous effects of the country that is the outline for today's broadside.

DIAZ'S LETTER TO CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES READ YESTERDAY

"Sirs: The Mexican people, who so generously covered me with honors, who proclaimed me their leader during the war, who patriotically assisted me in the work undertaken to develop the industry and commerce of the republic, establish its credit, gain for it the respect of the world and obtain for it an honorable position in the concert of nations—that same people, sirs, have revolted in armed military bands, stating that my presence in the exercise of supreme executive power is the cause of this insurrection.

"I do not know any fact Immediately putable to me which could have caused this social phenomenon; but permitting, though not admitting, I may be unwittingly culpable, such a possibility makes me least able to reason out and decide my own culpability. Therefore, respecting, as I have always respected, the people, I come before the supreme representatives in or-der to resign, unreservedly, the office of constitutional president of the republic, with which the national vote honored me, which I do with all the more reason since, in order to continue in office, it would be necessary to shed Mexican blood, endangering the credit of the country, dissipating its wealth, exhausting its resources and exposing its policy to international complications.

"I hope, gentlemen, that when the passions which are inherent to all revolutions have been calmed, a more conscientious and justified study will bring out in the national mind the correct acknowledgment which will allow me to die carrying engraved in my soul the just estimation that throughout my life I have devoted to and will devote to my countrymen.
